Sheriff Grantham Wins Re-election: Fob James Stuns Experts By Leading Race

The first of the three trips to the polls is over for Alabama voters, and there are more disappointed candidates than happy ones, due to the long ballot and large number of prospective officeholders. Both locally and statewide there were some upset votes with most candidates and their supporters believing "we are going to win."

In Coffee County, the race that drew the most contestants and the most interest was the sheriff's race where incumbent Sheriff Neil Grantham was a clear winner over his

Ted Fillingim

Ted Fillingim upset incumbent W. R. Fuller for the right to serve on the Coffee County School Board. The vote was 4545 to 3946.

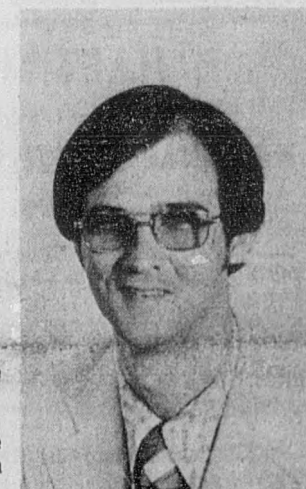

Neil Grantham

four opponents with 5703 votes as compared with 4527 for the combined vote of his opponents. The number two vote getter in that race was Charlie Webb, who polled 3222. Grantham carried most of the boxes of the county. He won heavily in Elba, carried Enterprise and every other beat except Webb carried Beat 7 and 8 (Mt. Pleasant just below Enterprise, and Goodman). Three boxes in Beat 17 (Enterprise) voted Webb slightly and one was a tie between the two.

Ronnie Burns and Milfred Head are apparently headed into a runoff for Tax Collector, with Burns leading with 3618 votes and Head collecting 3187. The other contender in the race, Danny Watkins, polled 2244 votes, including a large vote from his hometown of Enterprise. Head told this newspaper Wednesday he definitely would runoff the race.

W. T. "Mac" McKinney won his race for a full six-year term at Tax Assessor, defeating Linda Drakewater 3432 to 3020. McKinney is currently serving an unexpired term in the office.

Wallace Miller

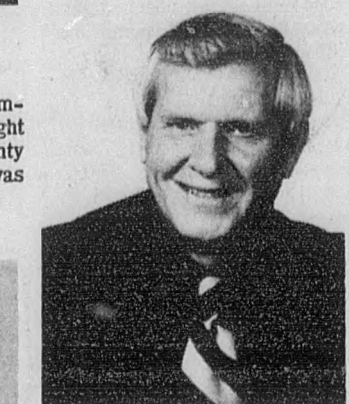

Marvin McIlwain

Marvin McIlwain will remain as Coroner of the Elba Division of Coffee County, while Danny Bradley will remain as Coroner in the Enterprise Division. McIlwain defeated Hiram Glass by a vote of 2676 to 541, while Bradley defeated Dr. James Paulk 3409 to 2318.

Myron Thomas won the right to serve on the Democratic Committee from Beat 10 by polling 215 votes to 159 for Donald Husey. James F. Wilson defeated Wayne Smith for Committeeman from Beat 11 by a vote of 212 to 81.

Former State Senator Wallace Miller won a big victory over Nathan Mathis for the right to represent District 25 in the Alabama Senate. He carried Coffee, Covington and Geneva Counties, while Mathis carried only the Houston County portion of the district. Miller polled 5455 votes in Coffee County to 1946 for Mathis. Nick Zorn only received 418 votes in the county.

Fob James

Newcomer Fob James led the ticket in the race for Governor of Alabama, followed by Attorney General Bill Baxley. Early favorite, former Governor Albert Brewer, trailed in third place. The vote in Coffee County was indicative of the statewide vote, with James, Baxley and Brewer being followed by the others, including State Senator Sid McDonald and Lt. Governor Jere Beasley. With 87% of the vote counted, James led with 22% or 212,335 votes while Baxley had 24% of the votes or 184,601.

"Walking" Wendell Mitchell was a clear victory over his two opponents, Bob Geddie and Margie Kirkland for the right to face incumbent U. S. Congressman Bill Dickinson, a Republican, in the November election. Coffee County voted with the district wide trend in this race.

The race for Attorney General is still unclear with Mobile District Attorney Charles Graddick showing a clear lead, but facing a sure run-off from either State Senator Joe Fine or former Assistant Attorney General Julian McPhillips. In this race Coffee County supported Graddick.

Don Siegelman apparently won over three women for the right to serve as Secretary of State. Siegelman is a former executive with the state Democratic Committee. The race for State Treasurer will be decided in the run-off with Public Service Commissioner Juanita McDaniel leading Mrs. Annie Laurie Guntor, who is currently serving in the office as an appointee of Governor Wallace.

The two places open on the Public Service Commission will be filled by new faces, as the incumbents didn't seek re-election. Place two was won by Jim Folsom Jr., son of the former governor. In Place One there is an apparent run-off between veteran state lawmaker Pete Mathews and Charles Gaddy, a 25 year old law student from Montgomery.

The Republican primary in Coffee County attracted 43 voters, according to Chairman Tom Haign. Guy Hunt won the nod locally for the nomination for Governor with 25 of the votes. Elvin McCary got the nod locally for the Lt. Governor nomination. He totaled 24 votes

Former Alabama Supreme Court Chief Justice Howell Hefflin was leading in his effort to replace retiring U.S. Senator John Sparkman. He will face a run-off from Walter Flowers, currently serving in the U. S. House of Representatives. Judging from state-wide returns attributed to Flowers Tuesday night this promised to be a hotly contested race.

Mrs. Jim Allen leads in her bid for the unexpired term of her late husband. She faces State Senator Donald Stewart in the run-off, according to incomplete returns.

Sheriff's Dept. Recovers 31 Telephones From Pea River Near Kinston

The Coffee County Sheriff's Department spent several hours Monday gleaning new and repaired telephones from the bottom of the Pea River. Also some of the equipment was retrieved from the Kinston Police Department.

The thirty-one telephones were reported Sunday evening by fishermen. They had been thrown into the water from the Southwest side of Ballard Bridge on Highway 134. Sheriff

Neil Grantham and Deputy Jim Henderson reported checking with General Telephone, and they knew of no missing telephones in spite of the fact that the packages contained General Telephone markings.

Folsom Files Request To Dismiss Law Suit

An answer has been filed in the $135,000 lawsuit filed August 23 against Elba Mayor Robert Folsom by suspended Police Chief M. W. Johnston.

The answer is in the form of a motion to dismiss the case, and was filed by Folsom's attorney, G. A. Lindsey, who also serves as City Attorney for the City of Elba.

Lindsey asked that the case be dismissed on several grounds, including a statement that "complaint fails to state a claim against defendant upon which relief can be granted."

The request also quotes several court cases covering persons that can be sued, payment of cost, etc., and in one section "adopts the allegations . . . that the action . . . is sought . . . to serve the interest of plaintiff rather than the public good . . ."

Later the request quotes an old Alabama case decision which reads, " . . . If one does an act which is legal in itself and violates no right of another, the fact that this right ful act is done from bad motives or with bad intent toward the person so injured thereby does not give the latter a right of action against the former."

Johnston had filed the suit after Folsom suspended him for insubordination on August 1st. The suit charged Folsom, "illegally and wrongfully embarked upon a campaign of harassment, intimidation, and provocation and design to compel the plaintiff to resign or lose his job as Police Chief of the City of Elba."

He asked for the $135,000 damages and reinstatement to his job. The case will be heard in the Coffee County Circuit Court.

Coffee County Native Featured In Paper

Mr. Dock Wilson, a Coffee County native, and brother of Mrs. Mae Dismukes of Elba, was featured in a recent issue of the "American Times Recorder" of Americus, Georgia. Mr. Wilson was saluted for being one of the few business men in the South who picked up the Georgia town for 43 years - the owner and operator of Wilson's Grocery. The combination grocery gas station has mostly drinks, candies, cigarettes and gas available now, but in years past Wilson did a thriving business with high school and college students.

He met his wife, Mildred, at the store when she drove in to get help to unlock her car. She was a college student who commuted with several other girls from the Americus countryside. Wilson recalled some of the items he has sold through the years in his store, including a pair of shoes, a pair of trousers, a pair of socks, a pair of shoes, a pair of trousers, a pair of socks, a pair of shoes, a pair of trousers, a pair of socks.

SEPARATING TODDLERS AND TINY OBJECTS

What's the most common cause of accidental death in the home for children under six? Inhaling small objects into the windpipe and the lungs. Almost everything young children get their hands on ends up in their mouths or up the nose. Whether they pick up a pin, a button, a peanut, or a tiny toy. From their mouth or nose, the object can slip down the throat and get into the windpipe. If it goes into the lungs, the objects can block a breathing passage and cause permanent damage.

To prevent these tragic mishaps—which are completely preventable—the American Lung Association is conducting a nationwide campaign to alert everyone who takes care of children, including older brothers and sisters. This is the message: be sure to keep small objects out of the reach of very young children.

According to the lung association, swallowing a "wrong way" is a real hazard for children as well as adults. Parents who teach youngsters not to talk and eat at the same time can help prevent problems.

Ordinarily, both food and air go into the upper throat. But, at a critical point they take two very separate pathways. Just before swallowing anything, including food or saliva, we take in a little air and then hold our breath. This closes a valve in the throat called a glottis. As a result, air is cut off, and anything we swallow is forced down into the esophagus, which leads to the stomach.

However, the minute we talk, we start to breathe. The glottis opens to let air travel into the windpipe and lungs. When food or small objects travel this route, trouble is on its way.

To find out more about preventing lung trouble and about the campaign to keep youngsters from inhaling objects into their lungs, contact your Alabama Lung Association, P. O. Box 904, Indian, AL 36032. THE CHRISTMAS SEAL PEOPLE—they take care about every breath you take.

Renew License

"This year's birthday may mean it's time for you to renew your Alabama driver's license," said Colonel M. L. Hilyer, Alabama Department of Public Safety Director. "If you are not sure when your driver's license expires, take it out and look at it. If the 'Year of Expiration' block says 1978 and your birthday is coming around again, be sure to renew your license."

There has not been a great decrease in the number of driver license renewals since the elimination of "mailing renewal notices" with the adoption of the picture driver's license. This indicates that most drivers are renewing their licenses on time. "Your driver's license is important, so be sure to keep it current," Colonel Hilyer said. "When you think birthday, think driver's license."

UNDERNEATH ARE THE EVERLASTING ARMS.

There are no more beautiful words in the Bible than those recorded in Deuteronomy 32:27. "The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms." The assurance of these words runs throughout the verse. Many of the gods of the heathen are as temporary as mankind, and the values of their gods are as transitory as the winds of heaven. But the God whom they worship is eternal in His existence, certain in His attributes, and constant in His morality. How comforting to know that in the midst of a world where ethics and spiritual values fluctuate with the dawning of every day, God is the same in His unchangeable character and constant in His activities.

As good as it is to know that He is an eternal God, perhaps the other part of the statement comes closer to the ring of warmth and understanding for which the human heart craves. "Underneath are the everlasting arms," somehow links the human with all the divine attributes of God. Not only is God great and mighty, but He is in contact with the human plight. And furthermore, He shows this concern on an individual basis. The writer of this verse must have watched as an eagle trained its young to fly by nudging the baby from the nest to test its wings. When the young eagle would begin to fall and come painfully close to being dashed against the rocks, the mother would swoop down and catch the baby on her back. Thus, while the young were learning to fly, they would still know the strength and wings of the mother. So God promises that His resources are at the disposal of His children when they are learning to live the spiritual life.

Pat Terry Group To Appear At TSU

BY: New Life Ministries, TSU

As a popular song writer said, "Music is the universal language." Consequently this is the language that the Pat Terry Group uses to communicate Jesus to the world. These three gentlemen will be ministering in music September 11, at 6:00 p.m. at the Smith Hall Auditorium on the Troy State University campus. All people, especially young adults, are invited to come and listen to the words of life that these three will bring. Tickets will be available at the door the night of the concert or by writing in advance to: New Life Ministries of Troy, P.O. Box 253, Troy, Alabama 36061. The cost per ticket is $3.00.

Because of the limited seating, people are urged to arrive early in order to secure seats. The group consists of Sonny LaBarbera, Randy Buggs, and Pat Terry, who is from Smyrna, Georgia. All three were musically inclined at early ages and all three grew up in church. Music was their first love until after high school when they met and formed the "Pat Terry Group." The group's music has been called Christian rock music, folk music, etc., but the group themselves label it "Folk, Rock, Jesus Music."

Pat has written and recorded a number of songs and has been touring with his close encounter with Jesus Christ, but, as they themselves put it, their main purpose is to share Jesus through music. The Pat Terry Group is being brought to Troy by two local New Life Ministries, a ministry dedicated to the purpose of sharing Jesus through music.

NEWS from your PHARMACIST

BY Kris Scarborough

Many persons are troubled with back ailments which could have been prevented had they practiced care in lifting heavy objects. You should evaluate the object to be lifted, and get help if the load appears to be too heavy for you. Don't over-tax your back—this can result in sprains, strains, torn ligaments or more serious trouble.

If you do lift an object, stoop down and keep your back straight, pushing upwards from the floor with your legs. They will do the work without straining your back. Remember to lift gradually and don't twist your body. Keep the load close to the body to avoid additional strain on the back, and you can avoid injury. However, the best advice is to get someone to help lift even light loads. Save your back.

If you do suffer from back trouble, you will find a complete line of medical aids at our pharmacy to help relieve the pain.

The bridegroom's table was decorated with a white lace cloth and held a chocolate cake embossed with cascading fall flowers. A watermelon shaped into a fruit basket was filled with fresh fruits and the attendant's bouquets placed in the center of the table.

The altar decorations consisted of areca palms and fern with arrangements of white stock specimen mums and gerbera. A candelabra holding cathedral tapers and white tapers and white candles on each side of the altar completed the traditional nuptial decorations.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained at a reception. The guests were presented to the receiving line by Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford B. Stabler.

Background music during the reception was presented from tape under the direction of Dr. Paul Haines of Auburn. Miss Cheri Clark of Enterprise, the bride's cousin, sang "My Task." With the piano background music, Mr. Bryan Quina sang "With God as Your Partner" by Helen Steiner Rice. Mrs. Travis Whitman, aunt of the bride from Panama City, Florida, directed the wedding.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a formal wedding gown of white Quina knit designed with a full scoop neckline, empire waist and long sleeves. A sheer embroidered yoke, embroidered with seed pearls was shaped to cover the shoulders. The flowing A-line skirt swept back into a chapel length train. Her triple shoulder length veil of Tulle illusion was attached to a Juliette headpiece of matching Quina accented with seed pearls. She carried a white Bible covered with a French cascade bouquet of white roses, and a baby's breath, tube roses, and Stephanotis and was tied with satin streamers of love knots.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Samuel McNair of Sumter, South Carolina, and maid of honor, Miss Patricia Clark of Dothan. They were gowned alike in floor length empire gowns of rust Quina knit. Each wore a small comb containing a bronze mum in their hair and carried a cascade bouquet of baby mums and daisies centered with a sheaf of wheat.

Views From The Pressbox

By Ricky Mularz, Sports Editor

The Elba Tigers claimed their second straight lopsided win last week, but I haven't figured out whether Elba is "that" good, or their opponents were "that" bad!

The Tiger defense has come up with 5 fumbles and 5 pass interceptions in their opening two games and the offense has responded by scoring five touchdowns after the turnovers. One thing for sure, Elba does take advantage of breaks! Looking back, Elba's offense has scored a lot of points and has done it primarily running from tackle to tackle. Fullback Jeff Stewart has provided some punch and is a hard runner, while Don Horstead has been a surprise with his speed and balance. Don has rushed for over 250 yards in two games and has not fumbled! The line has been opening holes and is also a surprise.

Defensively, we've recorded two shut-outs, but haven't been that impressive. Brundidge moved the ball on us, and Geneva seemed to pass at will. The defense has been underdoing a lot of personnel changes and may strengthen when it can work as a unit with 11 players!

The local football scene still hasn't settled down as upsets continue to fool everyone! In Class A, the Coffee Springs Golden Bears have scored only 2 points in two games! The Bears were supposed to breeze to a state play-off berth, and might yet, but not unless they improve in a hurry.

Brantley just keeps on winning despite a lack of quality players. The Bulldogs have a winning coach and a winning spirit, and will probably once again win a play-off berth. Kinston and New Brockton both won last week and both appear headed for a pretty good season. I expect Kinston to get better every week as their youngsters gain experience, while Brockton will use its "fundamental football" and beat a lot of folks.

In Class 2A, the Samson Tigers must be for real. Samson has blasted two strong opponents and could be the "surprise" team in this area. Florin just did squeak by Hartford last week and maybe that Florin fan that is betting his team won't win five isn't as dumb as I thought.

Over in Class 3A, Andalusia showed no mercy in running up a 47-6 win over Chavala. I've heard Andy is better than ever, and I guess they're going to break their scoring record.

How about Dale County! The Warriors, once the worst team around, have come to life and have totally wiped out its initial two opponents. Maybe the Warriors are after some scalps!

Opp was slow getting started again last week, but woke-up and went 2-0 with a win over Troy. Briefly, in Class 4A, I saw Dothan play last week, and they looked bad! The new school has hurt their program bad!

Ye ole Polish Prognosticator had a hard time translating his thoughts last week and connected only 13 of 20. Ouch! Oh, well, I've cleaned the crystal ball and will try again...

Coach Wood Expecting Fierce Battle With Luverne

"I think that Luverne is better than the two teams we've played, and I expect the usual hard-hitting Elba-Luverne game," stated Coach Mack Wood when asked about tomorrow night's game.

Luverne has good size and dominated their game against Goshen," said Wood. "They moved the ball well and have had two weeks to get ready for us. Offensively, they are a running team. They use a veer offense and run well both inside and outside. They also have two big ends that catch the ball well. On defense, they're bigger than us and mix up their formations. They've got a tough defense."

"For us to win," added Wood, "our offense must continue improving and do what we've been doing. We've got to block well and be consistent. Defensively, we'll have to be alert and be ready for the pass and run."

Looking back to last week's lopsided win over Geneva, Coach Wood said, "I am proud of the team because it was a total team effort. The defense did give up some passing yards, but when a team passes 30 times, it's bound to gain some yards. I'm proud of our defense for hanging in there."

Our offense blocked well at times," said Wood, "and Marty Marler did a good job at quarterback. Don Horstead and Jeff Stewart also ran well. Overall, it was a good team effort and that's what we've got to have."

Zion Chapel Rebels Looking For First Win

The Zion Chapel Rebels, predicted by many to be one of the top Class A football teams in the area, saw their bubble burst last week when they were upset by the Louisville Red Devils. This week the Rebels will attempt to regroup against the Houston Academy Raiders - a team they have never beaten! They've got their team cut out for 'em!

"Houston Academy is a well-coached team that doesn't make mental errors," said Zion Chapel's Coach David Collins in a recent telephone interview. "You have to beat them because they won't beat themselves. Offensively, they run a wishbone and do a good job on the offense. Their backs are real quick and they're hard to stop. Defensively, they use a 4-3 alignment and they tackle real well. Their linebackers are extremely quick."

Collins added that for the Rebels to win, "We must get our minds on playing football. We've got to move the ball on the ground and be accurate passing."

Looking back to last week's 14-6 loss to Louisville, Collins stated, "We weren't ready to play and we got whipped."

"We moved the ball fair on offense," continued Collins, "but our defense just didn't stop 'em. They did whatever they wanted to, and it was obvious they wanted to win more than us."

Collins reported the Rebels' kicking game looked good and stated that the four players who graded the highest were Herman McClain, Mike Carney, Keith Costner and Jimmy Taylor.

Elba Junior High To Open Season On Sept. 4

The Elba Junior High Tigers, under the direction of Coach Jerry Kirkland, will open their season on Thursday, September 14, when they travel to Opp to battle the Opp Junior High Bobcats. Game time is 7:00 p.m.

At the present time, the Junior Tigers have only four (4) definite games, but the coaches are still contacting schools and hope to play an eight-game schedule. The games already set are: Sept. 14 . . . Opp . . . There Sept. 28 . . . Opp . . . Here Oct. 5 . . . Andy . . . Here Oct. 12 . . . Brundidge . . . Here

The Tigers went out in pads on Monday, September 4, and Coach Kirkland reports, "We don't have big boys, but we do have boys that want to play. We have some good players and expect to have a good season."

Only 28 boys were present for Monday's practice, but at least 40 are expected to make up the team.

"We've been working on fundamentals and conditioning so far," stated Kirkland, "but now we're ready to get down to work. We have to get ready for the opener in Opp."

Kirkland reported the competition for positions was fierce, and stated "We should have a good set of running backs."

Battling for positions in the backfield are - Quarterback - Ken Yelverton & Mike Amison; Fullback - Ted Horstead and Shane Meek; Tailback - Andy Hardwick and Michael Smith.

"All the positions are wide open and everyone is working real hard," concluded Kirkland.

Both teams mounted early drives, but neither was able to cross their opponent's goal-line. The first score of the game came as a result of the rough Brantley defense.

Billy Christian intercepted a screen pass thrown by David Tyler, and returned it 28 yards for a touchdown. Stan Haws added the extra point, so with 4:31 left in the first half, Brantley led 7-0.

Coffee Springs took the second half kickoff and drove 68 yards to the Brantley 8-yard line only to be stopped on a fourth down attempt.

Coffee Springs fumbled on their next possession to give Brantley the ball on the Coffee Springs 36-yard line. Eight plays later, David Wood cracked over from the two-yard line for the second touchdown of the game. Stan Haws caught the bad snap from center and raced around the end for the two-point conversion. So, now, with 8:31 to play in the game, the score stood Brantley 15 - Coffee Springs 0.

Neither team was able to mount a drive for the rest of the game, so that was the final score.

Neither team showed the explosive offensive ability they had last year, and this can be centered on two players. Brantley lost Larry Dorsey, the fantastic running back, to graduation, while Coffee Springs lost a real powerhouse to a neck injury. Darrel "Tank" Tyler, who gained 1300 yards last year running from the fullback position, will be out for the season as a result of the neck injury. John David Weeks is still there for the outside running, but without the inside running punch of the "Tank," Coffee Springs isn't the same team.

Brantley's leading runner was Terry Pease with 51 yards in 8 carries. Other rushers were Tony Pines with 43 yards in 8 totes, and David Wood with 35 yards in 11 carries.

Coffee Springs was led by John David Weeks with 42 yards in 15 carries. Roger Burdett added 39 yards in 5 carries and David Tyler had 23 yards in 16 carries.

The Brantley Bulldogs and the Coffee Springs Golden Bears met last Friday night in a rematch of last year's state playoff game. Neither team showed the awesome power that they had last year, but both showed they still have quality ball teams.

Both teams mounted early drives, but neither was able to cross their opponent's goal-line. The first score of the game came as a result of the rough Brantley defense.

New Brockton Dumps Ft. Deposit 7-0

The New Brockton Gamecocks opened their season on a winning note last week by claiming a 7-0 win over Ft. Deposit.

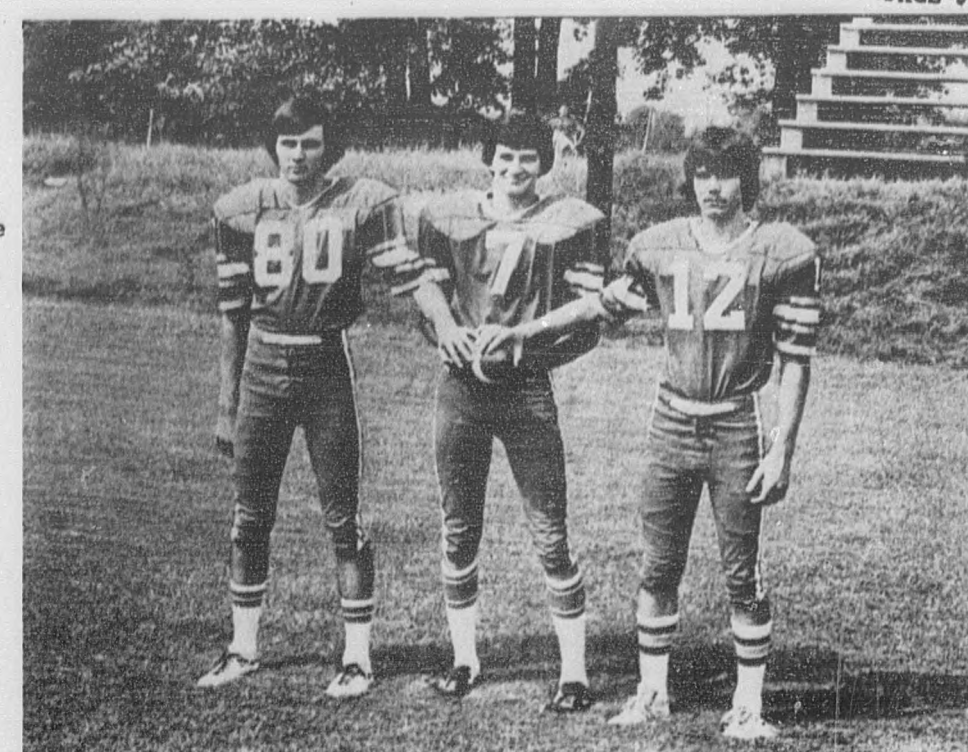

The Gamecocks' only score came when quarterback Larry Wilson scampered 7 yards to paydirt Robert Flowers added the extra point to make the score 7-0.

Neither team could muster much offense in the contest, as both defenses dominated play. New Brockton's offense netted 203 yards, while Ft. Deposit could move only 158 yards.

James Foster led the Brockton attack, with 83 yards in 13 carries, while Danny Haines added 37 yards. Wilson added 35 yards rushing, as did Terry Medley.

Bruce Porterfield was the leading runner for Ft. Deposit, with 98 yards in 21 totes. Leading the Gamecock defense were Wilton, Terry Medley and James Foster.

This week the Gamecocks are on the road as they travel to Arton to battle the unbeaten "Purple Cats."

THE ZION CHAPEL REBELS . . . will be depending on this trio Friday night when they oppose Houston Academy. The talented group includes (L-R) Alan Smith - 80; Ray Marler - 7; and Byron Foley - 12. Kickoff for the Class A matchup is 7:30 in Zion Chapel stadium.

Louisville Stuns Zion Chapel 14-6

The Zion Chapel Rebels opened their season on a sour note last week when they were upset by the Louisville Red Devils 14-6 in Louisville.

Football To Start

The Elba Little League football season will start Saturday night with 3 games scheduled. At 5:30 the first, second and third grade teams will play, followed by 4th and 5th grade game against Opp. The older boys will play at 8:00, also against Opp.

Zion Chapel's Corky Ward put the Rebels ahead 6-0 early in the game on a 58-yard scoring jaunt. The p.a.t. failed. Louisville came right back to take the lead for good, as Johnny Bascom carried it over from 4 yards out. James McLendon booted the extra point to put the Devils ahead 7-6. Michael Helms scored on a 1-yard run in the third period, and McLendon's p.a.t. made the score 14-6.

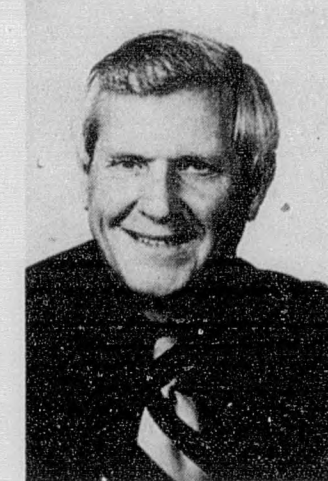

Neither team could score in the final stanza as Louisville held on for the win. Corky Ward led the Rebels both on offense and defense. Ward gained 85 yards in 13 carries, and made 13 solo tackles and 2 assists. Ricky Jordan had 8 tackles and 4 assists, while Keith Costner added 4 tackles and 4 assists.

Elba Tigers Overpower Geneva 35-0

The Elba Tigers claimed their second straight lopsided win last week by breezing past the Geneva Panthers 35-0, in Geneva. The win gives Elba a 2-0 record (1-0 in region), while the loss dropped Geneva to 0-2 (0-2 in region).

Geneva won the toss and received the opening kick, but failed to move and punted to the Tigers. Fullback Jeff Stewart bulled for 13 yards on Elba's initial offensive play and eight plays later, quarterback Marty Marler dashed into the endzone from 4 yards out to put Elba ahead to stay. Alan King added the p.a.t. to give the Tigers a 7-0 lead with 6:11 left in the first quarter. The touchdown drive consisted of nine straight running plays, with Don Horstead gaining 40 yards in 3 carries and Jeff Stewart adding 30 yards in 5 attempts.

The Tiger defense stopped the Panthers on their second possession, and following a 25-yard punt, began another drive to paydirt! The drive covered 72 yards in 8 plays and was climaxed by a 26-yard touchdown pass from Marty Marler to Perry Fuller. The extra point was blocked, making the score 13-0 with 11:56 left in the second quarter. Marler had passed to Fuller for a 28-yard gain earlier in the march, which took only 3 minutes - 51 seconds. Geneva drove to the Elba 33-yard line midway through the second stanza, but was stopped by the aggressive Tiger defense.

The Tigers again started to march toward the Panther goal only to be stopped at the Geneva 18-yard line. Alan King attempted a 35-yard field goal, but the kick sailed to the left, and made the halftime score Elba 13 - Geneva 0.

Geneva put the game out to reach early in the third stanza by scoring 22 points in a span of only 4 minutes and 7 seconds! The Tigers received the second half kick and drove in for a touchdown in only 4 plays. Marty Marler kept for a one-yard gain on first down, followed by an 8-yard scamper by Don Horstead. Horstead ramblled for 33 yards on the next play down to Geneva's 18-yard line, only to see the ball brought back to the 33-yard line by a clip. On the next play Marler again went to the air, and found tight-end Russ Wood all alone behind the Panther defenders. The play covered 33 yards and following King's p.a.t. the Elba lead had gone to 20-0, with 9:35 left in the third quarter.

Geneva's offense again failed to move, and on fourth down, Geneva's Mims went back to punt. The snap was low and Mims bobbled the ball, giving Elba time to reach the punter. Mims fumbled the ball and defensive end Gary Bradshaw recovered it in the endzone for a touchdown! King ran for the two-point conversion to give Elba a 28-0 lead with 8:14 left in the quarter.

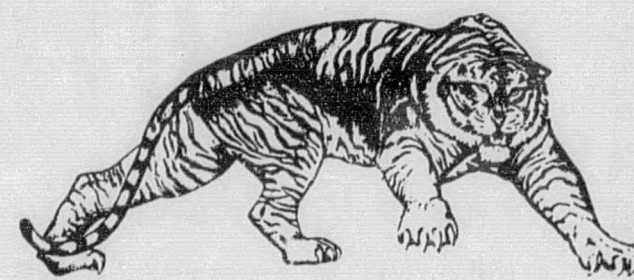

Geneva came out passing on their next possession, and promptly moved to midfield. However, Russ Wood picked off a Panther aerial at the Elba 34-yard line and returned it 66 yards for another touchdown to move Elba even further ahead. King's kick was again good to move Elba ahead 35-0 with 5:28 still left in the third quarter.

Geneva moved into Elba territory on their next possession, but Alan King intercepted a pass at the 20-yard line to end the threat. Elba emptied its bench in the final quarter and the reserves mopped up a 35-0 win. The Tiger shut-out was preserved when Vince Bowers intercepted a desperation at the goal-line with 1:11 left.

Elba's offense was led by Marty Marler and Don Horstead. Marler, a senior quarterback, ran for 40 yards in 4 carries and one touchdown, and passed for 87 yards and two touchdowns. Horstead, a sophomore running back, rushed for 133 yards in 12 carries.

The defense was anchored by Greg Elenburg with 9 tackles and 4 assists, Russ Wood (6 tackles, 3 assists, 1 interception), and Perry Fuller (4 tackles, 1 assist).

Elba Council Takes Action To Cut Spending Of Revenues

The Elba City Council unanimously passed a motion Tuesday night creating a finance committee of the council of the whole to approve any and all purchases prior to the purchase. Previously, this had been done by several different methods with small purchases often being done by the actual user, others approved by the city clerk or his representative or by Mayor Folsom. Now any purchase must be approved by at least two councilmen before it can be made. A comment by Councilman D. M. English (about the inconvenience of the committee route for a while, but feeling it would eventually work its way out smoothly) was apparently the feeling of the group, and there was no further discussion.

Another motion failed to get unanimous support or even a clear majority, but apparently passed. Councilman John W. Sharpless made a motion for the council not to pay Mayor Folsom's legal fees in the lawsuit filed by Chief M.W. Johnston. Sharpless noted, "It appears this suit grew out of personal disagreement, and I move the council not pay Mayor Folsom's attorney fees." Councilman Jimmy Wise seconded the motion. Councilmen English, Hawkins and Russell abstained from voting, while Sharpless and Wise voted in favor of the motion. Those not voting explained they wanted legal advice on the matter. This vote was four to two, with Sharpless and Wise opposing and the other three councilmen plus Mayor Folsom voting to table.

A check with several qualified in procedure and a reading of Roberts Rules for Order indicate that with a quorum present and speaking up, two votes for the motion and none opposed (Folsom can't vote because it directly involves money for or from him), then the motion is passed. This is being further checked by city officials, along with the motion to table after the vote on the other motion.

Acting Police Chief Max Rayburn reported receiving $381.50 in fines during August, and recommended an audit of the police department. The council noted that the regular annual audit would be held in about fifteen days, and this would cover the issue.

The police are to check on the need for some requested steps up both sides of the lower at the Troy Highway. The council will approve the steps if the school children are needing them.

The council approved a Plot Club recommendation for 25 new sets of Christmas decorations to cost $3300. They will be leased for three years at $100 a year.

Roy (Buddy) King was hired as a police officer at the recommendation of Acting Chief Max Rayburn. He had been serving as a radio operator. Hired to replace him as a radio operator was his sister, Dixieann Serna, who has been serving as relief operator. No action was taken on hiring a relief operator. Rayburn is to report a recommendation to the council.

The final action was a motion to start cutting Ann Street as soon as drainage work is completed in Brookdale.

Commissioners Confront Garbage Problems

The Coffee County Commission met in regular session on Monday, September 11, at the Courthouse in Elba, and again heard reports of problems with garbage pick-up in the county.

Commissioner Don Smith stated that some residents in the county had complained that they were being charged more for garbage containers than their neighbors. Smith asked Commission Clerk Brannan Winston to check the minutes of the meeting at which Frank Moore was awarded a contract to lease the containers and find out the exact fee agreed on by the commission. Smith added that some people were being charged $16 a month when he thought the commission had agreed that a $12 fee was written into the contract, but delayed action until the minutes could be located.

The meeting began at 10:00 a.m. with all members present. Members of the board were Rex Boutwell, Gilmer Grant, Don Smith, Jack Hornsby, Max Reeves and Bonnie C. Beckham. The chairman is Probate Judge James L. Sawyer.

The first order of business was to open bids on pest control service for 11 county buildings. Bids received were $22 a month from Pesto Pest Control and $30 from Rex Bradshaw. The commission voted to accept the low bid from Mr. Bradshaw.

Representatives of the Enterprise Ledger (a local newspaper) met with the commission and asked it to purchase an advertisement in an upcoming special edition of the paper. A full page ad would cost $275.20, and a half-page ad would cost $137.60. The commission took no action on the request, but did agree to take action before the deadline.

The commission received three reviews for their study and approval. The grants, which did resolve county approval, were: (1) Alabama Council on Human Relations, for Coalition against Hunger - $85,000; (2) Budget and Planning for State Highway Planning and Resource - $2,375; and (3) Project Outreach for Youth Services program - $44,000.

County Engineer Leslie Mullins told the commission that new Federal Regulations state that before dirt may be removed from a new pit the soil must be examined by a licensed archaeologist. In the future, the same must be done on all projects requiring the removal of soil. The county must pay the archaeologist since there are only a few licensed inspectors in the state. It means that all jobs will have to be set at least one year before construction can begin.

In other action at Monday's meeting, the commission:

- **approved a pay increase from $450.35 to $522 for Civil Defense Secretary Mary Lunsford (pay is monthly);
- **heard a complaint of garbage being dumped along roads;
- **was told the elections would cost at least $12,000 and agreed to transfer needed funds from Road and Bridge Fund;
- **voted to borrow money to pay bill from Tax Appraisal work;
- **and, paid bills.

"LET ME ENTERTAIN YOU" These Chi Omega sorority members (l to r) Pam Gallimore, Elba; Suzette West, Laverne; and Theresa Wilson, Troy; entertained rushes on the closing night of hectic rush activities this past week at Troy State University. Twenty girls pledged the sorority.
